

You've Been Jingled!

The Christmas Elf is jingling around.
Leaving some goodies... I see you have found.
Bringing good cheer for the Holiday Season.
Continue this jingling, you have a good reason.

First, post this Elf, it may seem like a chore.
Do it soon or you may get some more!
This will let the other Elves know of your visit.
Be sure to participate, you don't want to miss it!

Second, make two goodies & two copies from www.beenjinged.com

Deliver them to two friends, try to stay calm.
Jingling around is certainly fun,
To act like an Elf and then Run, Run, Run!

Next, you have only one day to act, so begin.
Leave it at desks where the Elf hasn't been.
Deliver when the time is just right.
Be really sneaky and stay out of sight!

The Jingling Elf wants to bring everyone Joy
Visiting the places of good girls and good boys.
This is all in good fun and we are trying to say,
Have a Merry Christmas & Happy Holidays!
